

Blake Tranby-Laudahl is a 2019-2020 PGY1 resident at Park Nicollet Methodist Hospital in St. Louis Park. He is from Bloomington, Minnesota and is a 2019 graduate of the Doctor of Pharmacy program at the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities campus. His areas of interest in hospital pharmacy include emergency medicine, anticoagulation, diabetes, oncology and operations. Interests outside of pharmacy include spending time with family, gaming, car shows/events and grilling.

Dimitra Hasiotis is a 2019-2020 PGY1 resident at Park Nicollet Methodist Hospital in St. Louis Park. She is from Coram, New York and is a 2019 doctoral graduate of Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey. She also has a Bachelor of Science degree in biology from Stony Brook University in Stony Brook, New York. Dimitra's pharmacy interests include internal medicine, palliative and hospice care, and medication safety. She is an avid baseball fan and enjoys exploring the outdoors.