

Adult: Optimal Care for Acute Low Back Pain

This rate reflects members with newly diagnosed low back pain and whose doctor followed best practice for deciding when to: 1) get a CT Scan, Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) or x-ray, 2) request a consultation about surgery, 3) request injection therapy, 4) prescribe narcotic medications.

