

Rheumatoid arthritis: Patients taking certain medications that had testing to monitor liver function

Rheumatoid arthritis patients taking methotrexate, sulfasalazine, or leflunomide that had serum ALT or AST test to monitor liver function in last 6 reported months.

