Depression remission at 12 months

The percentage of patients with depression who reported few to no symptoms twelve months after starting treatment. This is called "remission." High treatment remission rates can be a sign of strong clinic performance in depression care.
Depression remission at 12 months

The percentage of patients with depression who reported few to no symptoms twelve months after starting treatment. This is called "remission." High treatment remission rates can be a sign of strong clinic performance in depression care.
Depression remission at 12 months

The percentage of patients with depression who reported few to no symptoms twelve months after starting treatment. This is called "remission." High treatment remission rates can be a sign of strong clinic performance in depression care.

---

Percent in remission at 12 months

- Lake Superior Community Health Center
- People's Center Health Services
- North Clinic, PA
- Winona Health Services
- Hennepin County Medical Center
- Lakewood Clinic
- West Side Community Health Center
- Ramsey County Mental Health Center
- Gateway Family Health Clinic
- Institute for Athletic Medicine
- Integrity - Northern
- Minnesota Rural Health Cooperative Clinics
- Open Door Health Center
- Northern Pines Mental Health Center, Inc
- Caritas Mental Health Clinic
- Minnesota Rural Health Cooperative Clinics
- Ridgeview Clinics
- Lakeland Mental Health Center, Inc
- Hutchinson Health
- Albany Medical Center
- Altru Clinics
- Associates in Psychiatry & Psychology
- Carver County Mental Health Program
- Douglas County Hospital
- Hudson Physicians
- Integrity - Buffalo
- Midwest Center for Personal and Family Development
- Minnesota Rural Health Cooperative Clinics
- Minnesota Rural Health Cooperative Clinics
- Northern Psychiatric Associates
- Osceola Medical Center
- People Incorporated
- R. Williams & Associates
- Stevens Community Medical Center
- Tri-County Health Care
- Unity Family Healthcare